Circles of Mercy by Gerry Bacon is a Kafkaesque tale set in the make-believe town of Gaston, Michigan. Though we never learn why, Mercy Hortsman has chosen this small community as her home and soon the sleepy burg is embroiled in competing plots of incest, lust, fraud, adultery, pettiness, suicide and murder. Dear Friends, Hope this newsletter finds you well. Gerry and The Pacemakers are approaching the end of another year of touring which has seen them covering many miles crossing up and down the U.K. Big Fleet for Regatta. Some 21 catamarans comprising two divisions and eight classes crossed the starting line in Tanilba Sailing Club's annual Big Boat Regatta over the weekend of 9 - 10th February. Islet Park House as it looks today. APF leased the left hand end of the house. The two large windows on the ground floor used to look onto the ballroom - two similar windows are on the other side of the house so that gives an indication of its size.
