The Kaplan Nursing School Admissions Test is a pre-admission assessment that predicts a student's nursing school success. Because the first step in any successful nursing program is selecting the correct students, a test that determines student aptitude is essential. Barbara J. Irwin, BSN, RN is National Curriculum Director for Nursing programs at Kaplan, Inc. She supervises development of the Kaplan courses for preparation for the NCLEX-RN exam, as well as integrated testing programs implemented by nursing schools. Applicants to the Bachelor of Science in Nursing basic licensure program are required to complete the Kaplan Nursing Admission Test (KNAT) at Clayton State University. Since 1982, Kaplan Nursing has been providing the nation's leading NCLEX-RN® Examination Review. Led by experienced nurse educators, Kaplan Nursing prepares thousands and thousands of nursing students for the NCLEX-RN® examination each year.
