Most of Kate Chopin's short stories are set in the late nineteenth century in Louisiana, often rural Louisiana. Most of the characters, like most of the people living in Louisiana at the time, are Creoles, Acadians, "Americans" (as the Creoles and Acadians call outsiders), African Americans, Native Americans, and people of mixed race. This is a listing of the stories by author with mention of the books that the stories were taken from or mention of the person who so graciously supplied the story to Classic Short Stories. Study Questions to help you get the most out of the Short Story. Not all of these questions will be equally applicable to all of the short stories you will read -- or to short stories generally that you will read outside this course.
